HOUSTON AUTHOR AND ATTORNEY REVEALS HOW PATIENCE IS THE KEY TO SUCCESS

Pearland, TX, February 25, 2008 – On Saturday, March 8, 2008 from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., Houston author and attorney, DeMonica D. Gladney, will discuss and sign her book, Willing to Wait: From Revelation to Manifestation, at the Barnes & Nobles Book Store (First Colony Mall) located at 16535 Southwest Freeway, Suite 4000, Sugar Land, TX 77479. There is no charge for the event and it is open to the public.

In Willing to Wait, Gladney reveals a powerful message on how patience is the key to achieving success. Gladney shares her own personal powerful testimony of how learning to be patient helped her to fulfill her dream of becoming an attorney. A victim of a near fatal head-on collision, she was faced with a challenging legal battle and injustice with the drunk driver who hit her. Her patience and tenacity helped her to overcome adversity and motivated her to pursue a career in the legal profession. After her life-changing experience, Gladney was inspired to write, Willing to Wait, to share her tragedy to triumph story.

DeMonica D. Gladney, Esq., is Counsel for Exxon Mobil Corporation and previously served as a Briefing Attorney for the Texas Fourteenth Court of Appeals. She is an honors graduate of the University of Houston Law Center and Lamar University. She is a Past President of the Houston Lawyers Association and Chair of the African American Lawyers Section of the State Bar of Texas. Gladney is also the author of the inspirational poetry book, Reflections from God.
